தூசும் அங்கு போக முடியாது. மெஷீனில் பாலை ஊற்றி பாஸ்டரைஸ் செய்து கை படாமலேயே பாட்டிலில் அடைத்து அனுப்பு கிருர்கள். பாலை ஊற்றுகிற இடத்தில்தான் பார்க்க முடியும். நல்ல படியாக அடைத்து, நல்ல முறையில்தான் பாட்டில்கள் அனுப்பப் படுகின்றன. பாட்டிலில் அடைத்து லாரியில் ஏற்றி அனுப்பு கிருர்கள். அப்படியிருக்க உயிரோடு மீன் இருந்தது என்று சொல் வது ஆசரியமாயிருக்கிறது. ஆகவே யாராவது கொண்டு போகிறவர் “மிஸ்சிப்” செய்திருக்கவேண்டும்.

Foreign Tours of Ministers

* 174 Q.—SRI MUNU ADHI: Will the Hon. the Chief Minister be pleased to state—

(a) the number of Ministers and the places visited by them abroad during the years 1957—1962;

(b) whether these visits were made at the expense of the concerned Ministers or of the Government; and

(c) if the expenditure is met by the Government, the amount of expenditure so incurred?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM: (a) Three Ministers went abroad during 1957–1962. Sri R. Venkataraman, Minister for Industries, proceeded to Geneva in 1957, as a Member of United Nations Administrative Tribunal and in 1958 as Leader of the Indian Delegation to attend the 42nd Session of the International Labour Conference. He also proceeded to New York during the previous years 1958, 1959, 1960 and 1961 to attend the United Nations General Assembly.

Sri M. Bhaktavatsalam, who was previously Minister for Finance and now the Chief Minister, visited the Soviet Union in July 1960. Sri C. Subramaniam, the previous Minister for Finance, visited the United Kingdom in September 1960 and United States of America in 1961. On his way back, he visited West Germany, France, Switzerland and Italy in 1960 and Union of Soviet Socialist Republic, Canada, Japan, Hongkong and Singapore in 1961.

(b) No expenditure was incurred by the State Government in connection with the visits of Sri R. Venkataraman and Sri M. Bhaktavatsalam. Sri C. Subramaniam visited the United Kingdom in 1960 at the invitation of the Government of United Kingdom and the United States of America at the invitation of that Government in 1961.

(c) The expenditure incurred by the State Government in respect of Sri C. Subramaniam's visit abroad is Rs. 4,466.12 nP.
